Kenſington, July 27.

HIS Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to appoint John Evans, Eſq; Sheriff for the County of Montgomery, in the Room of his Father Francis Evans, Eſq; deceaſed.

Warſaw, July 15. The King of Poland is expected here from Dreſden towards the End of next Month, about which Time a General Diet of the Kingdom and Republick of Poland is to be held at Grodno; and the Univerſalia, or Writs of Summons, for aſſembling the particular Diets of the ſeveral Palatinates to chuſe their Deputies for this general Meeting, have been iſſued ſome Time ſince. An Envoy is come from the Cham of Tartary, who intends to wait here his Majeſty's Arrival, and in the mean Time is entertained at the publick Expence. The Turkiſh Envoy who lately had Audience of his Majeſty at Reiſſen, is returned home. There has happened an Inſurrection of the Rabble at Lemberg, who plundered the Houſes of the Jews in that City, and killed ſeveral of them; but divers of the Ringleaders have been ſeized, and are to ſuffer exemplary Puniſhment. The Muſcovite Forces, commanded by General Repnin, which were quartered in the Palatinate of Wilna, marched from thence the 3d Inſtant towards Dantzick, in order to oblige the Inhabitants of that Town to perform the Conditions on their Part of an Agreement they made with the Czar when his Forces were formerly in their Neighbourhood. A Fire happened lately at Zolkiew, a Town belonging to Prince Sobiesky, the greateſt Part whereof has been conſumed.

Cologne, July 29. The Elector Palatine intending ſhortly to remove from Duſſeldorp to Heidelberg, the Palace there is ordered to be fitted up for his Reception. The Magiſtrates of the Town of Ratisbon on the 21ſt Inſtant paid Homage, and took the Cuſtomary Oath to the Emperour before the Cardinal of Saxe Zeits, his Imperial Majeſty's Commiſſary. Some Letters from Dreſden ſay the King of Poland is very much indiſpoſed. We have juſt now received by an Expreſs from Vienna the happy News of the Concluſion of the Peace with the Turks, which was ſigned at Paſſarowitz the 21ſt of this Month by Sir Robert Sutton, Ambaſſadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from His Majeſty of Great Britain, and the Ambaſſadour and Plenipotentiary of the States General as Mediators, and by the reſpective Plenipotentiaries of the Emperour, the Republick of Venice, and the Ottoman Porte.

Hague, Aug. 2. The 31ſt paſt the Baron de Heems, his Imperial Majeſty's Miniſter, received an Expreſs from the Imperial Court with an Account of the Treaty of Peace being ſigned at Paſſarowitz between the Emperour and the Republick of Venice on one Part, and the Ottoman Porte on the other: The Baron de Heems immediately notified the welcome News to the Great Penſionary, and to the Foreign Miniſters and other Perſons of Diſtinction reſiding here, who have ſince made him their Compliments of Congratulation upon this happy Occaſion. The States General have had under Conſideration the State of War or Military Eſtabliſhment for the enſuing Year, laid before them by the Council of State, to which they have made ſome ſmall Alterations, and have ſince ſent it to the States of the ſeveral Provinces for their Approbation. The States of Holland and Weſt Friſeland are ſtill aſſembled, but will adjourn the 6th Inſtant for a few Weeks. The Heer de Bye, Reſident from this Republick at Moſcow, is recalled; no other Perſon is yet appointed to ſucceed him in that Employment. We hear the States of the Province of Zeland have reſolved to give their Conſent to this Republick's entring into the Alliance to which they are invited by the Emperour, the King of Great Britain, and the moſt Chriſtian King, for reſtoring the Peace and Quiet of Chriſtendom. The Sieurs de Capelle, Leſtevenon and Volters, being deputed by the States General to reconcile the Differences between the City of Groningen and the Ommelands, ſet out from hence for Groningen the 30th paſt. Our Letters from Petersbourg ſay, that ſince the Death of the Czarowitz Orders have been given for the ſeizing of ſeveral Perſons of Note, who are accuſed of being concerned in the Traiterous Practiſes wherein he was engaged againſt the Czar his Father.

Paris, Aug. 3. An Order is publiſhed to defer till next Month the Execution of the Edict for regulating the Value of our Coin. Letters from Italy give an Account, that the King of Sicily's Vice-
